Tenebrae Service in March

By Pastor Heather Hill

This March 11 the service at 6:00 PM is taken from an early Christian service called Tenebrae. The name Tenebrae is the Latin word for “darkness” or “shadows.” During the service we will experience only a small portion of Christ’s pain and suffering the day of His crucifixion. One of the most conspicuous features of the service is the gradual extinguishing of candles until only a single candle, considered a symbol of our Lord, remains.

As it gets darker and darker we can reflect on the great emotional and physical pain that was very real for Jesus that evening. Toward the end of the service, the Christ candle is hidden, typifying the apparent victory of the forces of evil over good. At the very end, a loud noise is made, symbolizing the earthquake at the time of his death (Matthew 27) and his resurrection (Matthew 28:2).

At the moment of the earthquake, the temple veil

Correction: Newest Saints!

Last month we reported that the Pastor Heather Hill and her husband Rev. Dustin Berg are expecting their first child in July. It appears that we may have miscounted. Heather and Dustin are expecting TWINS!

Blessings and Best Wishes to Heather, Dustin, and to our newest saints!

was torn apart, making the Holy of Holies exposed to public view. This is understood to represent God’s change toward us with direct access to him, no longer requiring the ceremonial acts of the priests for our forgiveness of sin.

The hidden candle is then restored to its place, symbolizing the triumph of good over evil.

By this single light we all depart this service in silence.

Food and Beverages will be shared in the hall after the service.

Bonnie is Leaving All Saints

It is with great sadness that we say farewell to Bonnie Goodrich on March 15. She is going to enjoy staying in on snowy mornings. She has been working at All Saints for ten and a half years, first as bookkeeper and then as secretary. Stop by the office or call to thank her for her years of service to All Saints!

New Orleans Visits Parma

By Gil Fritzsche

It was difficult to distinguish the parish hall from Bourbon Street on Sunday, February 12. The Second Sunday program hosted Mardi Gras Night at All Saints and the guests in attendance were treated to authentic Mardi Gras music and cuisine. The evening began with a Jazz service featuring Walrus, a jazz ensemble comprised of music students from the College of Oberlin. The musicians punctuated the religious service with zesty jazz tunes, which, at times, got toes-a-tappin' and hands-a-clappin'.

Following the Jazz Service, attendees retreated to the parish hall, where beads, masks, and gold dabloons, as well as green, purple, and gold balloons transformed the hall into a New Orleans night spot. A sumptuous buffet of Cajun epicurean delights prepared by native Louisian Frank Kynard provided the opportunity to dine on Red Beans and Rice with Sausage, Shimp Gumbo, and/or Chicken Jumbalaya. The traditional King Cake, complete with miniature plastic babies, rounded out the meal.

Notes from January Vestry Meeting

By Chris Crawford, Clerk of Vestry

December pledges were up: $11,109.00 (Actual) vs $8,750 (Budget).

A new checking account was opened at PNC Bank.

The All Saints' Website is updated, and we will continue to add information and pictures as they become available.

Discussed and passed the 2012 parish budget.

At the January 29 Annual Meeting, the following individuals were elected to 3-year Vestry terms: Bob Jordan, Sandy Kynerd, and Ruthann Wasil.

Walrus: Patrick Adams (trumpet), Timothy Bennet (saxophone), Peter Manheim (drums), Matt Adomeit (bass), and Julia Chen (piano)

Kudos to the Second Sunday planning committee for another job well done. They now turn their attention to the next Second Sunday event on March 11th. You won't want to miss this Tennebrae service. This somber liturgy is a marked contrast to the Jazz service and affords the opportunity to experience another unique worship format. We look forward to seeing you there.

They fill vacancies left by retiring Senior Warden Marcia Day, and Junior Warden Ed Sarian.

The following officers were elected by the Vestry:

Senior Warden – Ruthann Wasil

Junior Warden – Teresa Fowler

Clerk – Chris Crawford

Treasurer – Joel Kunesh

The Vestry has requested a Property Committee be formed in order to assist the Junior Warden with necessary repairs and property maintenance. All qualified parishioners are encouraged to join this committee.

Outreach Update

By Lisa Czerny

Report on the 2012 Outreach Program

The Outreach Committee's January project yielded eight boxes of pasta, 12 cans of tuna, and 64 boxes of macaroni and cheese. In addition, $42.00 was collected via the Outreach envelopes in the pews. Thanks for your contributions!

In February we are collecting cereal, peanut butter, and jelly. In March we will collect pasta, pasta sauce, and canned vegetables. All of the food collected the first three months of the year will go to struggling families in Parma. Money collected is used to buy grocery cards from the Emericks, which are used to buy more of these food items.

Please remember that if you choose to contribute money instead of merchandise there are Outreach envelopes in the pews. You can specify what food to buy if you write the project month on the envelope. See the February Carillon or the bulletin inserts for a full list of Outreach projects by month.

Outreach Financial Status

In 2011:

- $931.00 was donated for Outreach projects through the Outreach envelopes.
- $1,131.43 was donated via 2-Cents-a-Meal donations. This money is collected in special boxes and envelopes.
- $235.74 was collected for the United Thank Offering and a check was sent to the diocese.
- $327.00 was collected via the Thanksgiving envelopes, bringing our total in this restricted account to $1,596.

"All of the food collected the first three months of the year will go to struggling families in Parma. Money collected is used to buy grocery cards, which are used to buy more of these food items."

What is 2 Cents-a-Meal?

2 Cents-a-Meal is a program created by the Hunger Network of Ohio designed to remind us of the poor and needy at mealtimes. It encourages individuals and families to engage in a daily devotional exercise of collecting 2 pennies per person for shared hunger ministries as they give thanks for their own food.

Each household keeps an offering container for the 2 Cents-a-Meal offering in the kitchen or on the dining table. One suggested ritual prior to the mealtime blessing, one member of the family may begin with, "Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten." Then the rest respond, "Nor the hope of the poor be taken away." Numerous other options are available, adaptable to each family, each person who leads the prayer, or even each meal.

Each parish designates a Sunday of the month to receive the 2 Cents-a-Meal offering from their households. This is usually done at the time of the offertory. One cent is to be given to a local hunger ministry in which the parish is involved and/or supports. All Saints supports the Parma Food Pantry. The other one cent is sent to the Diocese to be forwarded to the Hunger Network in Ohio.

A Taste of Living on the Street

By The All Saints Youth Group

During last month's Homeless Lockout, our youth group endured the freezing cold, sleeping in cardboard boxes, and "begging" strangers on the street for donations for the homeless. Upon their return, our valiant warriors—Dana and Eric Miller, Kenzie and Rachel DeVore, and Jillian Czerny, wrote about their experiences. The following are excerpts from their recorded accounts:

I thought that it would be easy, but it's actually kind of hard. Something I will never forget is when these two different cars drove by and people made rude gestures at us. One man stuck his head out his car window and yelled, "I'll help the homeless—here's a tip: Get a job!" The hardest part of it, though, was trying to get to sleep. It was at most 15 degrees outside. The next day, I couldn't feel my toes. I actually thought my toes were gone. I really feel bad for homeless people now. I will never judge them again.

The sleepover was very challenging. It was really freezing, and people were really rude to us. It was cool getting to have a big colossal sleepover with the group on this tower castle.

Our boxes outside really did look like a castle when you walked in you would see like a flap on the left, right, and straight in front of you. In front of you would be Kenzie's and my room. On the left was Mark and Eric's room, and on the right was Dana's and Rachel's. I only slept for four hours; it was soooooo cold! I woke up at four. I probably just sat up and cried till seven; I just couldn't do it. Rachel was up with me, too. The next morning we walked out and our leader told us to wake up the rest of our group. When I got out of that box I wanted to stay out, but when I left I felt good about myself.

It was really cold. Jillian and I stayed up basically all night talking, and even though we each had about five layers on, when I went in to use the bathroom in the middle of the night, my feet were all swollen and purple. An adult from the Lakewood Church examined me. He said I was fine, but that I needed to put extra plastic bags on my feet. I was very proud of our youth group because, while the kids from the host church went inside, we saw it through and stayed out the whole night. What did I learn? Well, while some people were really rude to us, a myriad of people were very generous. Also, the next time I see a homeless person, I will have the urge to give them every penny in my wallet. I can't wait to go again next year, but I'm gonna pack totally warmer next time.

I came to the sleep-out, wondering if I actually wanted to do this. Lots of other kids would've just been sitting at home, in bed, but we stayed outside, begging for money for the homeless. That night, we slept in cardboard boxes. Even though we experienced some unfriendly gestures, it was pretty fun. It was a great experience. I look forward to doing this again next year.

Kudos to our youth group and Mark Miller for having the fortitude to see this experience through to the end. They were unanimous in their new found appreciation of what the unfortunates around us have to suffer through. Perhaps this was best summed up by one of the kids' Facebook message posted the minute she reached the warmth of her own home. It simply read, "Thankful."

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Lenten Activities

By Sandy Kynerd, Good Shepherd Teacher

During the Season of Lent our Good Shepherd classes will start on Sunday mornings at the usual time of 9:45, the difference being, the children will remain in the Atriums during the entire 10:30 worship service. We have much to study, discuss and learn during this Holy Season of Lent...The Parables, The Eucharist, The Last Supper, The Passion of Jesus and the Celebration of Easter and Baptism.

“Lord Jesus come, Good Shepherd come, the bread is on the table, lead me to you.
Lord Jesus come, Good Shepherd come, the wine is on the table, lead me to you.”

On the first four Sundays in Lent, starting on Sunday, February 26th, through and including Sunday, March 18th, you will hear the Good Shepherd children as they sing “Lord Jesus Come” and process into church immediately following the 10:30 worship service as they celebrate The Children’s Eucharist with Pastor Heather. The Children’s Eucharist has become a very special celebration each week during Lent as the children prepare the cruets and carry them up to the Altar along with the bread and their sacred vessels and altar linens to prepare the Lord’s Table. They are gathered around the Lord’s Table just as the disciples were at the Last Supper. The older children will also read a short scripture along with their Prayer List. All are welcome to remain and watch and listen as the children celebrate and worship and experience being up close and personnel with Jesus. Our Children’s Eucharist lasts approximately 15 minutes. On the Fifth Sunday in Lent, March 25th, the children will process into church at the Peace bringing in the elements of the Eucharist and setting the Lord’s Table along with Pastor Heather. After the 10:30 service on that Sunday we are planning a light brunch before going back into the Sanctuary for the Presentation of the History of the Kingdom of God.

Please stay for our Good Shepherd Children after the 10:30 service. The Children’s Eucharist and The History of the Kingdom of God Presentation are two very special opportunities to show our Good Shepherd children your support as they come to know the love of Jesus that they will carry with them through their lives.

Peace and Blessings!!!

The Bulletin Board

Soup Suppers Wednesdays 6–8 PM. Join us Wednesdays during Lent for our annual soup suppers. Our program this year will be lead by Linda McCorkle! Please sign-up on the bulletin board to bring soup and bread!!

Safeguarding God’s Children March 10 10am–1 pm. It is important for all of us to guard and protect the young people who are a part of our lives. This class put on by the church is designed for parents, parish leaders, those who work with children and youth, and all others who love them. Please sign-up and plan on joining us as we learn ways to keep God’s children safe.

United Thank Offering boxes can be found in the Narthex. Please pick one up and offer thanks to God through regular modest donations. The Annual Ingathering is in September.

In March we are collecting pasta, pasta sauce, and canned vegetables to help our State Road School families get through spring break.

The deadline for Carillon submissions is the 21st of the preceding month (April submissions are due March 21st).
